Perkins, De MEETING OF THE CITY CONSERVATIVE COMMITTEE LAST NIGHT-NOMINATIONS TO BE MADE-PRIMARY FIXED FOR THE 23D .-There was quite a full meeting of the City Conservative Committee last night. The resolution by which the committee at the previous meeting determined that nominations for the House of Delegates should be made was reconsidered and the whole question was again fully discussed.

As to maintaining the organization there was no difference of opinion. It was agreed by all that the Conservative party yet had a mission to fulfil; but by quite a number it was argued that the way to preserve it for the future was to omit nominations for the House, yet support the State ticket this

The committee, by a vote of 13 to 11, reaffirmed its former conclusion that nominations should be made.

Mr. Adams's primary-election plan was then agreed upon. The election is to be held on Tuesday the 23d at one voting-place in each ward except Jackson, where there are to be three. The five candidates receiving the greatest number of votes are to be the nominees. The judges and clerks who served at the last primary were reelected. None but white Conservatives are There will be a CONCERT at Association Hall on to be permitted to vote; the voting to be TUESDAY NIGHT, October 16. FOR THE BENEviva voce. As to the latter, it seems that there is a difference of opinion as to who should do the repairing. As the cost would only be a few dollars the Society can poorly afford to have, for the sake of the small amount involved, so much shabbiness prominent. The band-stand has been given a presentable appearance by the lime-wash artist, who has made its sides more than milky-white and its columns the deepest blue.

Foster, Macon. Henry Cox has represented the county since 1869, and is probably the only member of the Legislature who has seen continuous service since the days of reconstruction, with the exception of Stevens (colored), who was in the House from 1869 o 1871, and in the Senate since. Major Willis J. Dance, a Virginian of the old school and a man of fine talent, is the Conservative nominee. Cox defeated Major Dance by a small majority in 1875, after beating both the Conservative nominee and an independent colored Radical in 1873. Cox is unpopular, the party is much di-vided, and with proper efforts Major Dance can be elected.
